

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

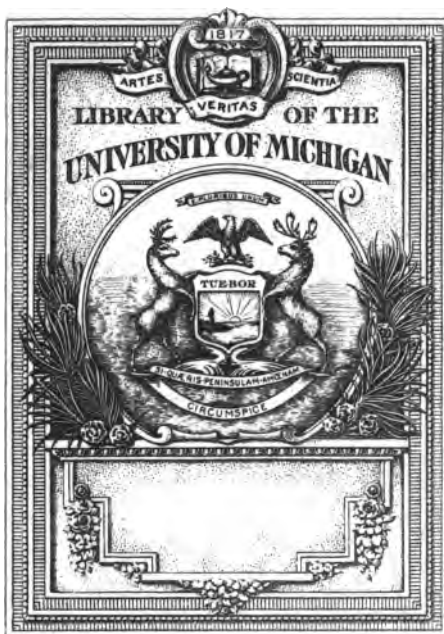

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

REPORT.

GENERAL TREASURER'S OFFICE,

PROVIDENCE, R. I., January 1, 1914.

To the Honorable the General Assembly of the State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations.

In accordance with the provisions of Section 19, Chapter 43 of the General Laws of Rhode Island, 1909, a detailed statement is submitted herewith of the receipts and disbursements of the treasury department for the year ending December 31, 1913.

For several years the reports of the General Treasurer have clearly pointed out that the income of the State was insufficient to properly conduct its affairs.

Never has lack of revenue been more apparent than at this time. Never has it been so embarrassing and as difficult for the General Treasurer to meet the payments for fixed charges and special appropriations, and never has this condition caused as much inconvenience to the departments and to individuals depending upon appropriations made for their use.

It would seem in making appropriations, that little regard is paid to current receipts, relying upon the unexpended balances of special appropriations to meet the excess of regular and dependable receipts. While it has, at times, been possible to pursue this course and carry the State through the year without serious inconvenience, it is unwise and unsafe, as the unexpended balances as long as they remain on the books of the treasury department are a direct charge to the State and are subject at all times to draft.

The unpaid bills of 1913, considerable in amount, will appear later in this report and can only be paid from the receipts of 1914.

There has been a gradual increase in current receipts for the past six years, but not in a corresponding ratio with fixed charges, as will appear from the table below:

1908.....	$1,647,824 00
1909.....	1,923,872 00
1910.....	1,938,094 00
1911.....	2,117,552 00
1912.....	2,308,845 00
1913.....	2,465,568 00

The fixed charges of 1914 will exceed those of 1913, as the cost of preparing, printing and advertising $250,000 Harbor Improvement, $300,000 Metropolitan Park, and $1,225,000 State Institutions bonds, with interest charges, and sinking fund requirements amounting nearly to $100,000, must be provided for

The following statement gives a liberal estimate of current receipts for the coming year, and the fixed charges and probable expenditures the treasury will have to meet:

RESOURCES.

Cash in hand January 1,
1914.....	$25 60
Cash in banks.....	15,732 74
Estimated receipts of 1914.	2,975,347 00
	$2,991,105 34

LIABILITIES.

Fixed charges	$2,490,227 00
Unexpended balances of special appropriations	281,652 78
Unpaid bills of sundry de- partments	11,557 06
Regular appropriations un- paid	161,239 16
	<hr/>	$2,944,676 00

The item of cash in bank in the above statement includes $15,400 in special account to meet interest on State House Construction Loan bonds, due January 1, 1914, and, therefore, the State begins the business of the year with practically less than $400 available cash.

It is evident the present financial condition cannot be continued indefinitely. There must be an increase in current receipts or a decrease in appropriations if the State is to administer its affairs to the convenience and satisfaction of the public and maintain its credit.

To meet the appropriations that must be made, and the appropriations that may be made under existing laws and such others as the public have a right to expect and demand, a dependable income of $3,500,000 is absolutely needed.

UNEXPENDED BALANCES, SPECIAL APPROPRIATIONS.

On the books of the treasury department, are a number of open accounts representing various sums of unexpended balances of special appropriations. The objects for which these appropriations were made have long since been accomplished, and the General Treasurer finds no authority under existing laws, whereby he may close such accounts.

It is, therefore, suggested, an act be passed giving the General Treasurer authority to recover into the treasury, the unexpended balances of special appropriations where no payments have been made for a period of two years.

UNIFORM DATES FOR VALUATION OF PROPERTY.

My experience of the past year in obtaining prompt returns of valuations of taxable property of the several towns and cities for assessment of the state tax, prompts me to quote from my report of last year:

“A uniform date for the valuation of property and assessment of taxes seems desirable. Valuations are now made by cities and towns from March to December. Even those made in March, April and May often failed to be filed with the General Treasurer in time for the semi-annual assessment of the State tax due June 15th, necessitating the assessment on a previous valuation, and an adjustment of the true amount due the State when returns are finally rendered.”

If all valuations could be made not later than April 1st, and filed not later than June 1st, it would simplify the collection of the tax and make a dependable receipt to the treasury which is greatly needed at that time in the year.

SAVINGS BANK DEPOSITS.

The operation of the law, Chapter 1590, Public Laws, 1908, as amended by Chapter 404, Public Laws of Rhode Island, 1909, requiring the transfer to the State treasury of deposits in savings banks, that have been unclaimed for twenty or more years, has proven unsatisfactory when the claimant reappears and demands the payment of his account. He may have a book evidencing his claim, present undoubted proof of his identity, but before he can be paid by the General Treasurer he must institute equity proceedings in the Superior Court to validate his claim. This requires the services of, and the expense of, an attorney. Many of these claims are small in amount, and in view of the expense are frequently abandoned.

Why should a claimant of a deposit in a savings bank in active operation be put to greater trouble, inconvenience and expense than he would be if his claim was in a savings bank in liquidation?

The law in relation to savings banks in liquidation is in part as follows:

Chapter 234, Section 4. "and any person claiming such dividend shall be entitled to the payment of such funds deposited in the General Treasury as aforesaid on producing satisfactory evidence to the General Treasurer of the validity of his claim."

Acting under the provisions of Sections 17 and 18, General Laws of 1909, I report the Town of West Greenwich has failed to pay the semi-annual State tax due June 15th, 1913, amounting to $173.05; also, the semi-annual tax due December 15th, 1913, amounting to $177.55.

There is due from the old Town of Warwick, the State tax from June 15th, 1913, to November 4th, 1913, amounting to $9,677.32. It is understood, however, that arrangements have been made for payment at an early date.

A detailed statement of the State House, Armory, Highway, Metropolitan Park, Penal and Reformatory Institutions and Harbor Improvement Sinking Funds; the Permanent School Fund, Touro Jewish Synagogue Fund, the Land Grant Fund of 1862, and a list of unpaid bills, due in 1913, is attached hereto.

In the appendix may be found a statement of the receipts and payments of the Hunters' License Fund, the list of deposits by sundry trust and insurance companies, the valuation of cities and towns for 1913, and a list of the sources of revenue and the amounts derived from each.
